

The stern-tab quadrant has a protractor on which you can see how much the stern-tab is turned through a hole in the floor above the quadrant